

Resourcing the Future 2016 Conference

Live Poll Responses

Is the Circular Economy a real, economically viable, and achievable concept?

73% Yes 27% No

How best can consumers be engaged in Extended Producer Responsibility?

Clearer and more consistent eco-labelling Communications & awareness campaigns Direct charging at point of sale for key products/materials

33% 60% 7%

Do you feel well informed and engaged in industry discussions about the EU Circular Economy Package?

36% 64%

Yes No

Should the UK follow the example of other EU Member States in rolling out Extended Producer Responsibility schemes for more products, such as tyres, textiles and furniture?

93% Yes 7% No

Which (one) demand side measure do you feel would deliver the most rapid and effective change?

Green procurement obligations Stronger eco-design requirements EU-wide secondary materials standards

25% 32% 43%

Is it time for a review of Landfill Tax or the introduction of landfill bans to stimulate more diversion?

Landfill Tax Landfill bans Both Neither

11% 18% 52% 19%

Do you think mandatory food waste collections will be an inevitable consequence of the EU Circular Economy Package?

Yes 62% No 38%

If you could choose one economic measure to be fast tracked, which one would it be?

Pay as you throw Variable product VAT Secondary materials incentives

53% 14% 33%

How best can consumers be engaged in Extended Producer Responsibility?

Clearer and more consistent eco-labelling Communications & awareness campaigns Direct charging at point of sale for key products/materials

12% 23% 65%

Which is the priority audience for future food waste prevention policies – consumers or businesses?

Businesses 40% Consumers 60%

Should the UK remain in or exit from the EU?

Remain 81% Leave 19%

