From fires to machinery, there are lots of health and safety risks on waste sites. Operators play an important role in looking out for potential hazards and preventing accidents, making sure these sites are a safe place to work.

Our new games give you a quick and easy way to learn about two essential health and safety topics: hazard awareness and fire evacuation procedures.

By playing these games, you'll be able to learn new skills whilst having fun at the same time!

HAZARD SPOTTING
